New student check-in

Brubaker Auditorium, Eisenhower Campus Center

All new first-year and transfer students at Messiah University should check in on campus when they arrive for the fall semester. New students and their guests should arrive within their arrival timeslot. (Please see email from your admissions counselor for arrival sign-up details.) When you check in, you will receive any student materials you need (such as your student ID, room key and parking permit), your orientation materials, your Welcome Week T-shirt and your orientation group number.

8 a.m. – 2 p.m.

F

Student services (Student Financial Services, Financial Aid, Student Employment, Technology Support)

Brubaker Auditorium, Eisenhower Campus Center

To complete your check-in, you will visit the other half of Brubaker Gymnasium. Student service offices will be available there throughout the day to meet with you and your guests. Any questions you have regarding your bill, financial aid package, student employment, banking options or technology support can be answered at this time.
