

George Pickens is Professor of Theology and Missions and Director of the Program in Peace and Conflict Studies at Messiah University. George is a seasoned educator and former mission worker in Africa. He has traveled the world widely, and in addition to the U. S., George has been involved in interfaith leadership and peacebuilding in Ivory Coast, Kenya, Malaysia, and England. He is an ordained minister in the Church of the Brethren and is actively engaged in interfaith peacebuilding in central PA.