Tribute to Ethan Van Bochoven
(1996-2018)

In 2018, Messiah student Ethan Van Bochoven was involved in a fatal car crash on Interstate 83, which shook the University, especially the Music Department.

In the summer of 2021, my violin instructor Peter Sirotin, who was Ethan's instructor as well, reached out to Ethan's parents to see if they would consider selling his concert violin. Long story short, they lovingly agreed so Ethan's violin would be cherished and played again. Ever since receiving his violin, I knew I wanted to honor Ethan in some way, and since he passed just a couple of weeks before his senior recital, it seemed appropriate to honor him at mine. With permission from his parents, I will be performing a tribute piece to him, a piece that he himself was going to perform.
