

Dietetic Internship

Additional Costs and Fees

This list should be used as a guideline and is subject to change at any time.

Item	Cost Estimate
Housing and Food (Interns are required to provide their own off-campus housing in Central Pennsylvania)	varies
Travel (Interns are required to provide their own transportation to practice sites; travel costs depend on living location)	varies
Textbooks	$500 - 900
Automobile and Health Insurance	varies
Personal Professional Liability Insurance	$30
Lab Coat	$50
PA Criminal Background Check	$10
FBI Background Check	$30
Child Abuse Clearance	$10
ServSafe Course (if intern does not already have a valid certificate)	$75 - 200
Health status documentation, including a recent PPD test for tuberculosis, a drug screen, MMR and hepatitis B vaccination, chicken pox or vaccination, flu vaccine	varies
Computer requirements: Current computer requirements can be found on the College Information Technology Services Technology Recommendations Web Page. In addition to the standard computer requirements, interns will need a printer/scanner and a laptop with the capacity for video conferencing.	$1000 - 2000
Interns are required to be Student Members of the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics	$65
Attendance at Professional Meetings (varies year to year with meetings attended)	$150 - 600